This map was compiled from U. S. Geological Survey quadrangle maps, the most recent Florida Dept. of Transportation aerial photography available, General Land Office plans, road inventory surveys provided by FDOT District Offices, and other sources.

This map was compiled using interactive computer graphic technology.

The railroad station shown on this map does not necessarily denote the presence of a depot or the facility; it may be only a point designated for the receipt or delivery of freight.

No attempt has been made to show all drainage canals or ditches.

Land grants are not identified by name on this map.

All elevations are taken from the 1980 United States Census, in 1990 the elevation of Marion County was 121-488. There are 121-488 feet in elevation.

No claim is made for the basic cartographic source material taken from a work or works of the United States Government.

Due to the scope of this map, the State of Florida Department of Transportation does not assume any responsibility for inaccuracies resulting from omissions or omissions of information.

Maps of this series are in the public domain. The maps are compiled and updated using public domain data and are copyrighted to prevent reproduction and resale for profit.
